

Chapter 2: What do microboards do?

Your microboard will have meetings with you.

Microboards usually meet once a month.

You can do fun things at your microboard meetings.

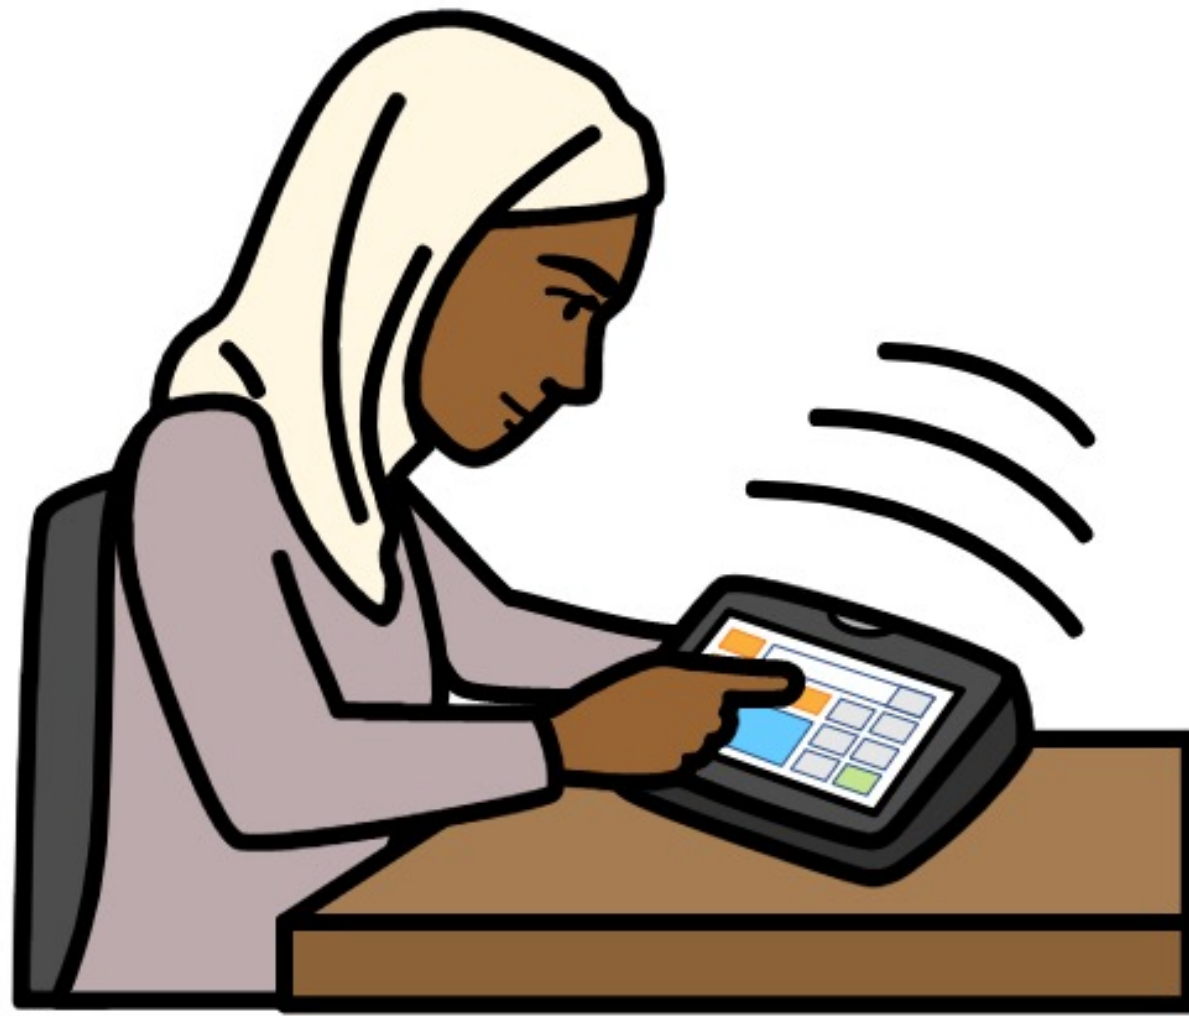

You can get to know each other.

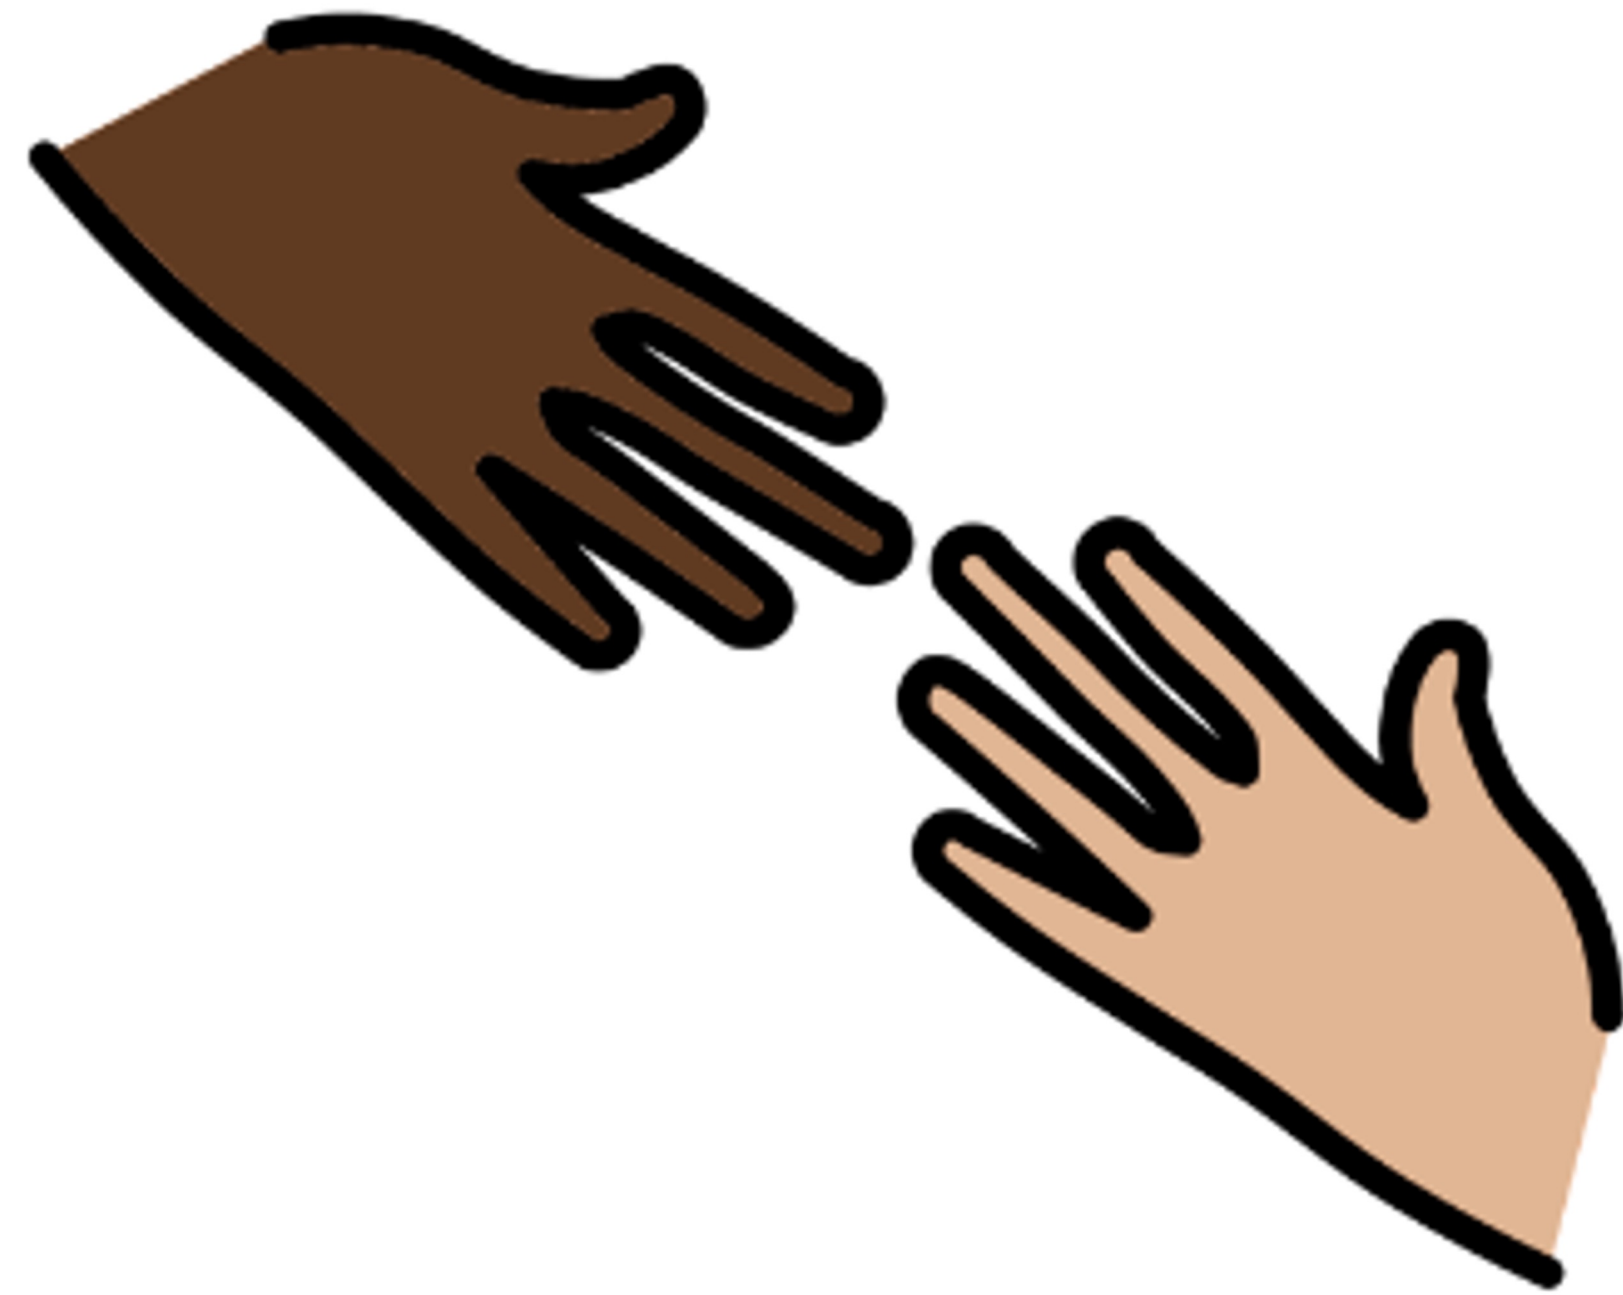

You can talk about important things at your microboard meetings.

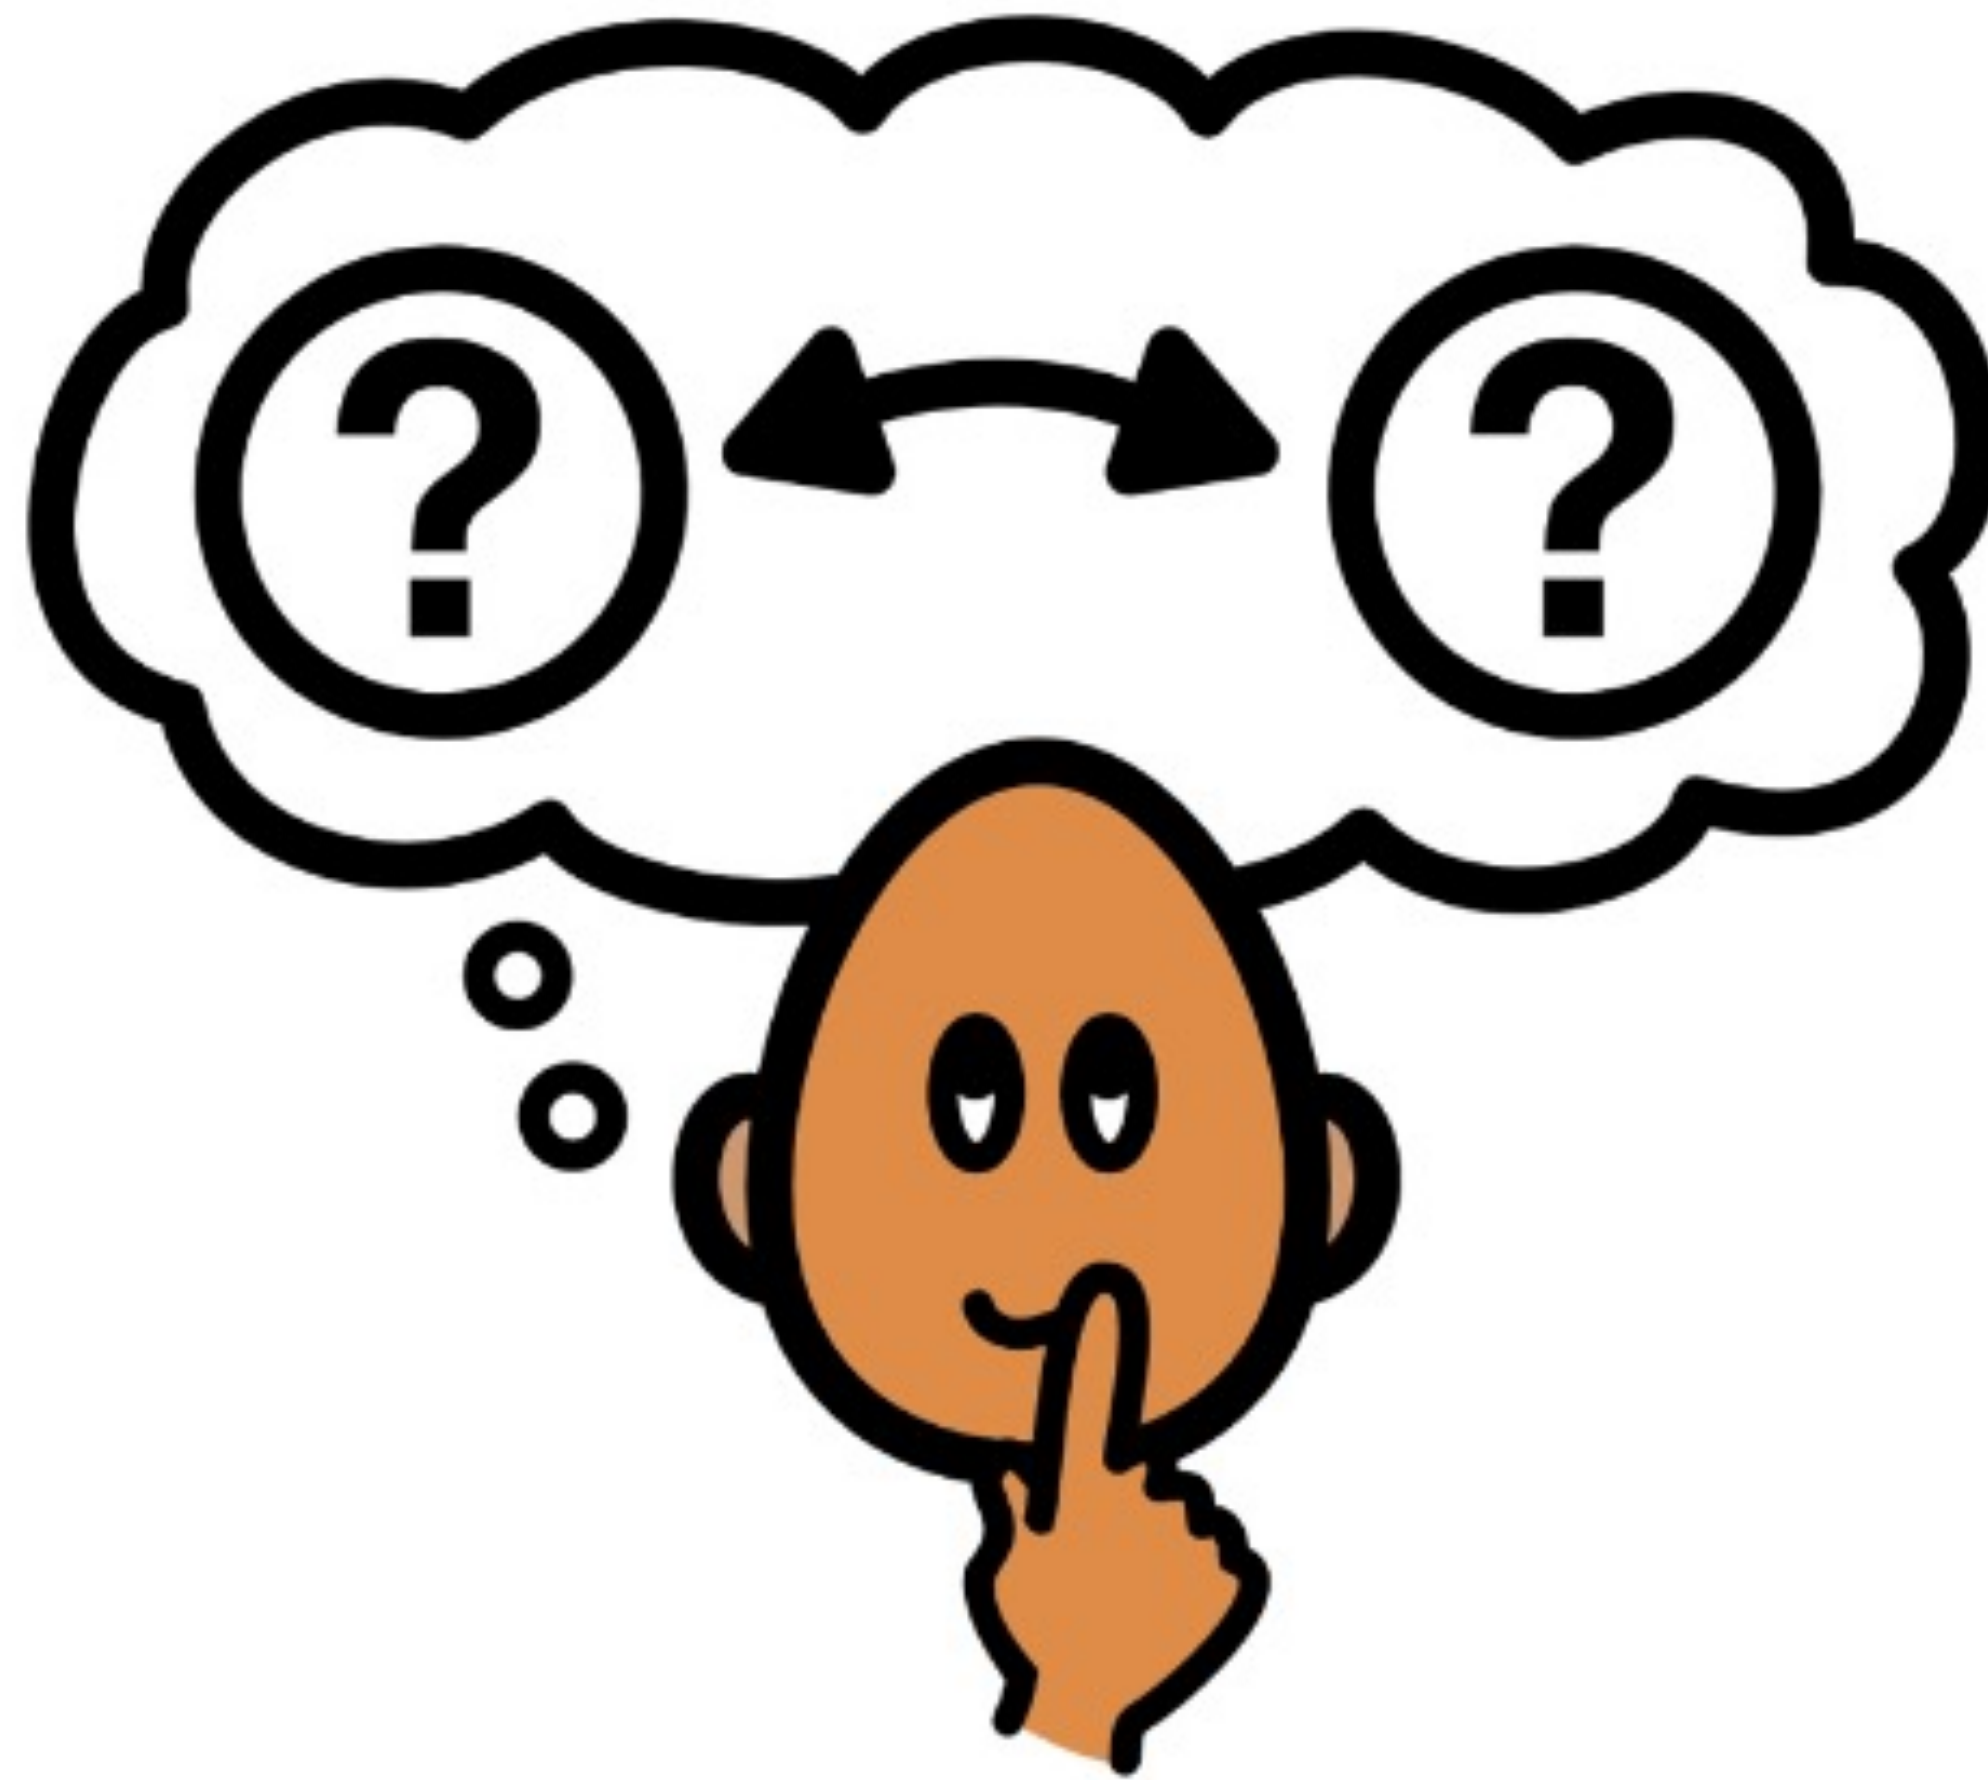

Your microboard will listen to you.

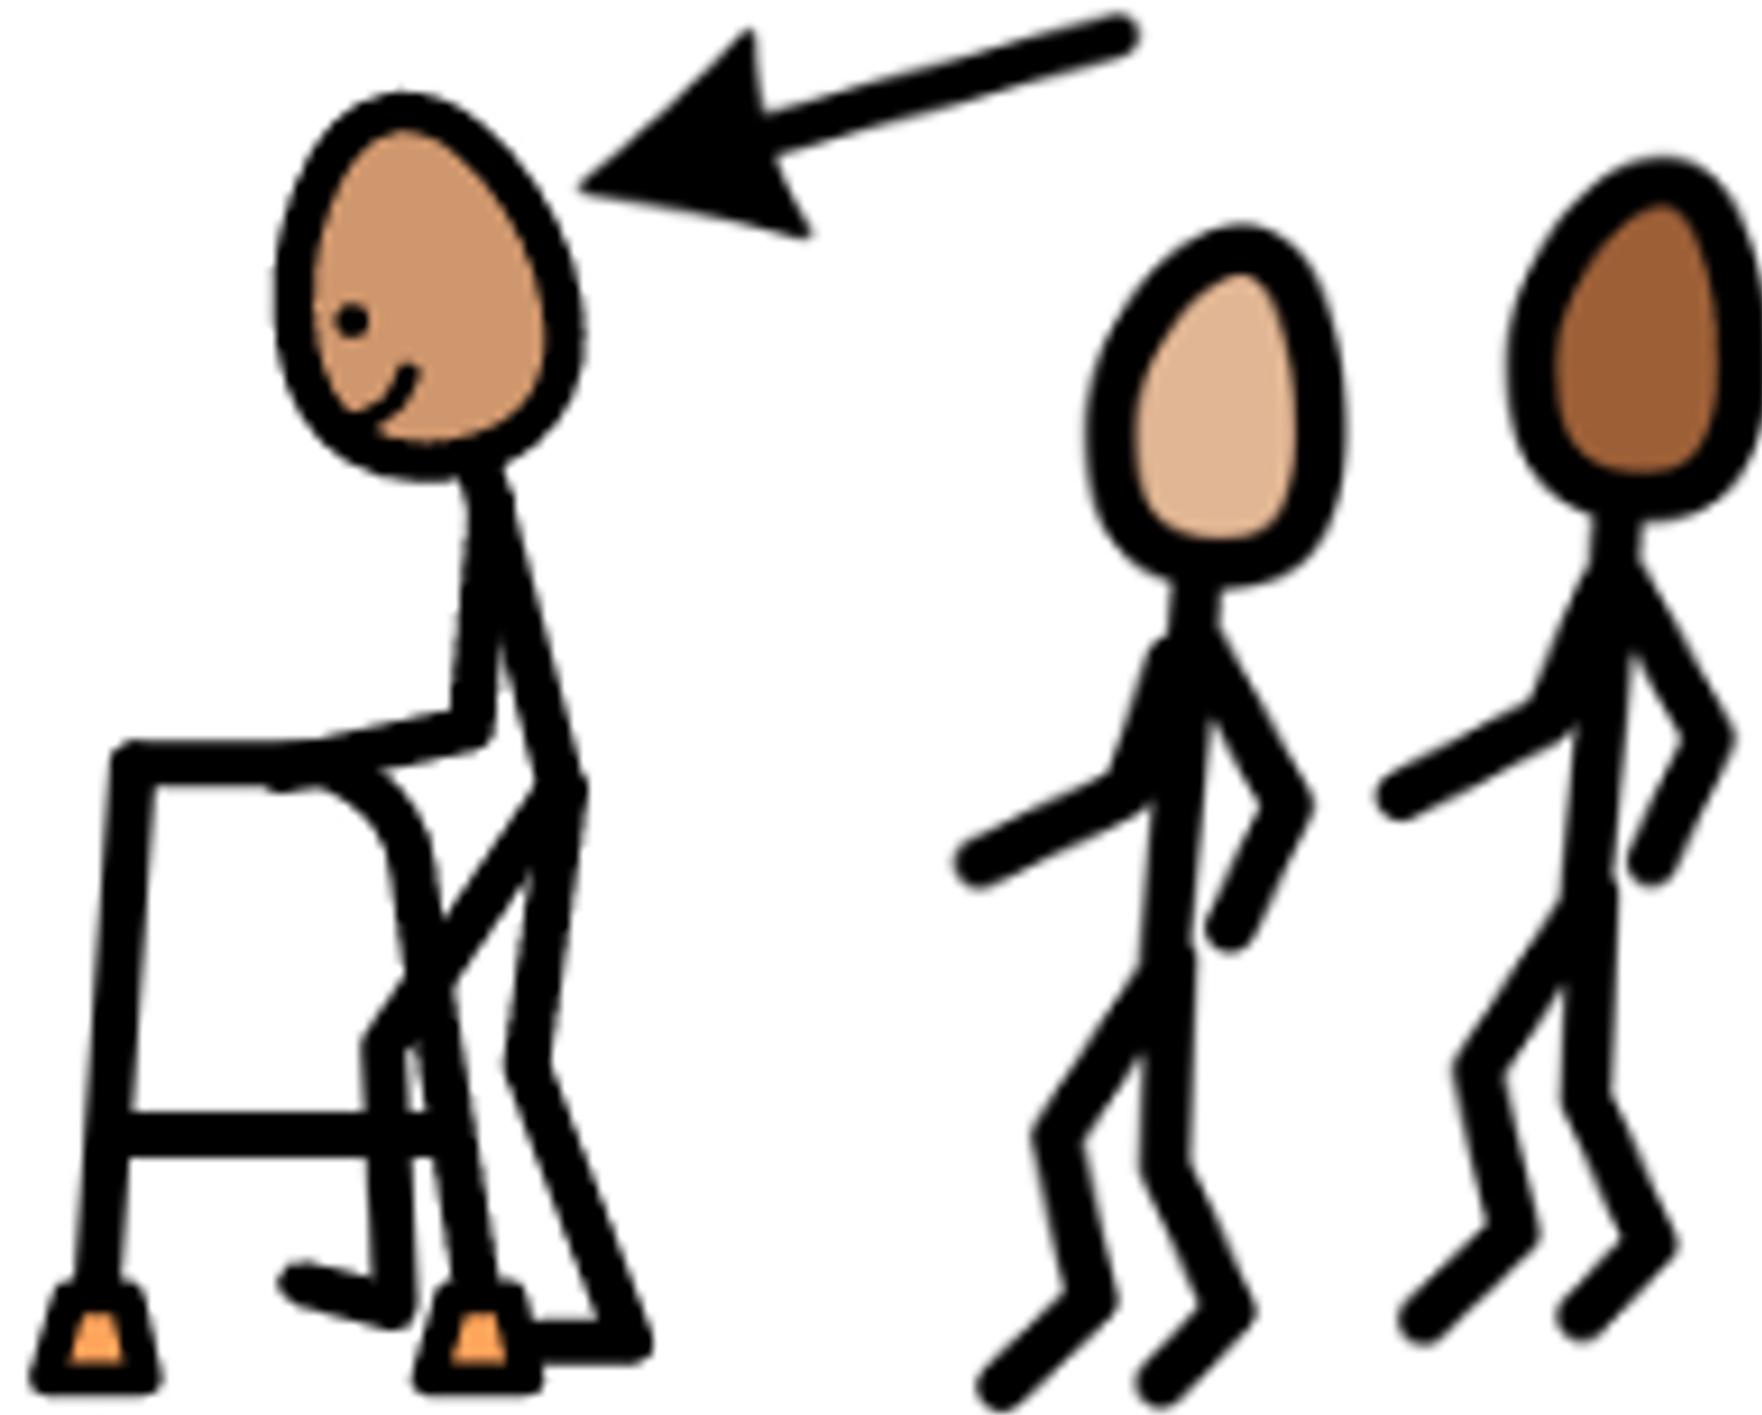

You can tell your microboard how they can help you.

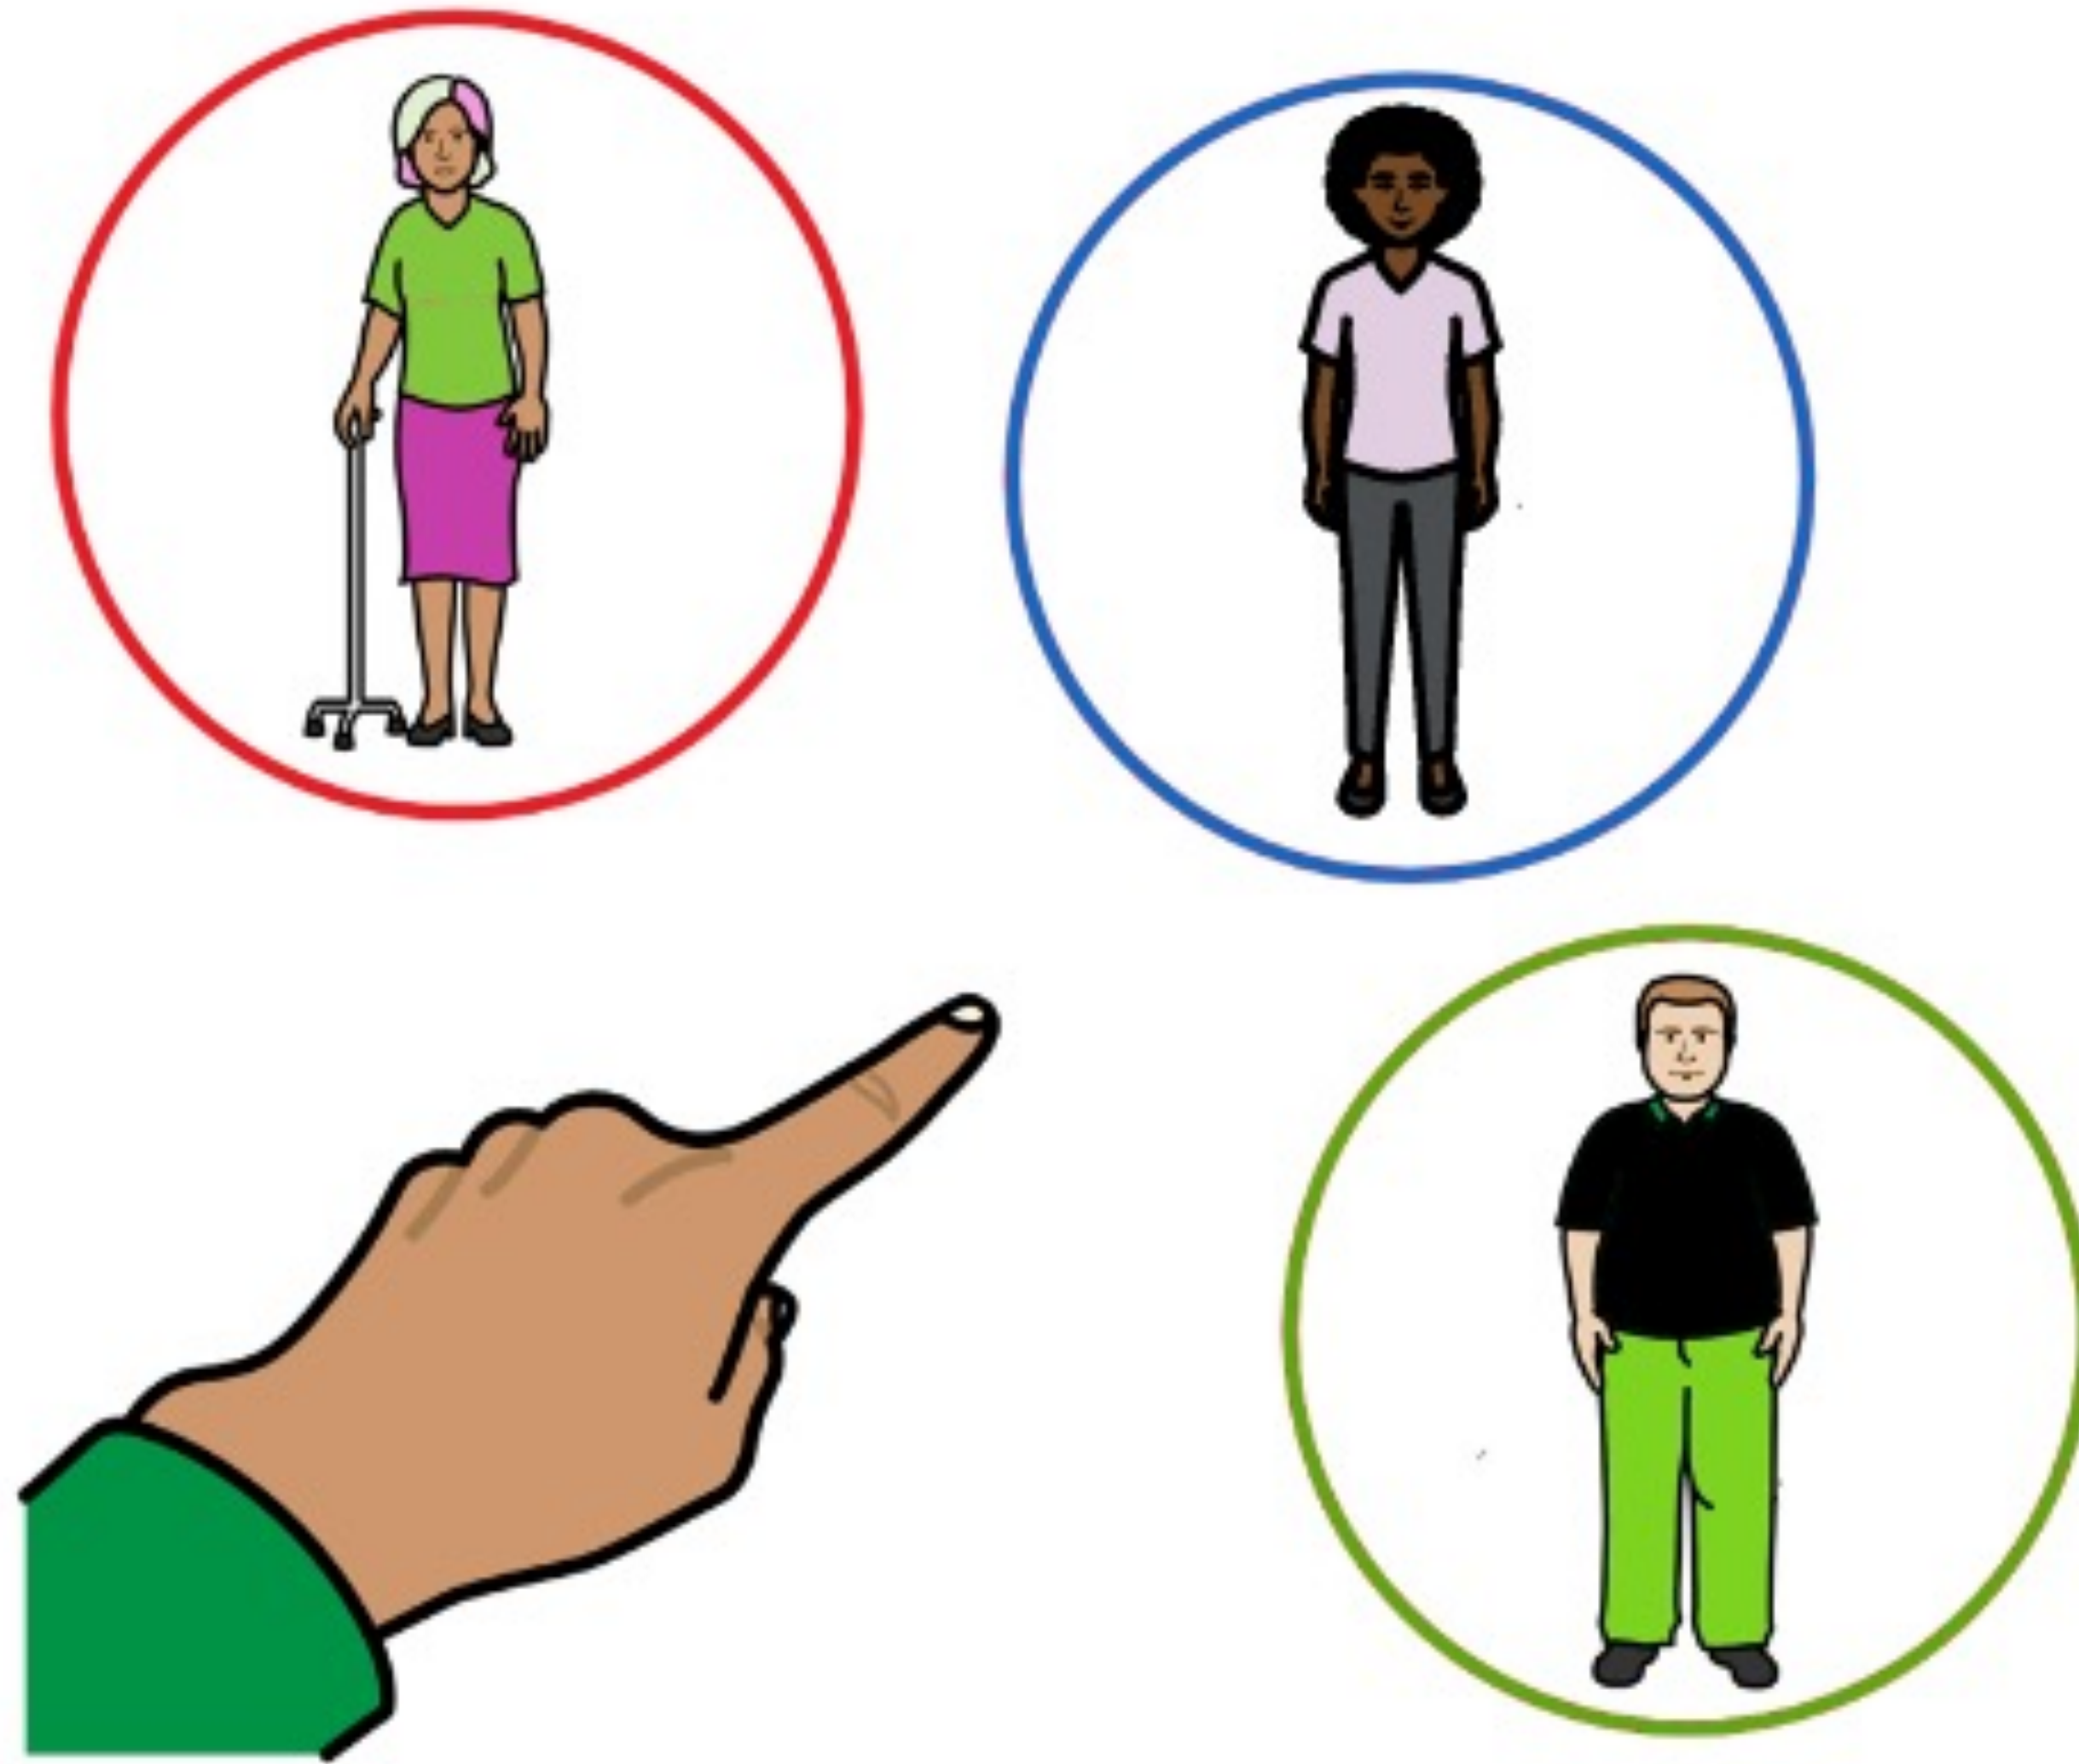

Your microboard can help you to make decisions.

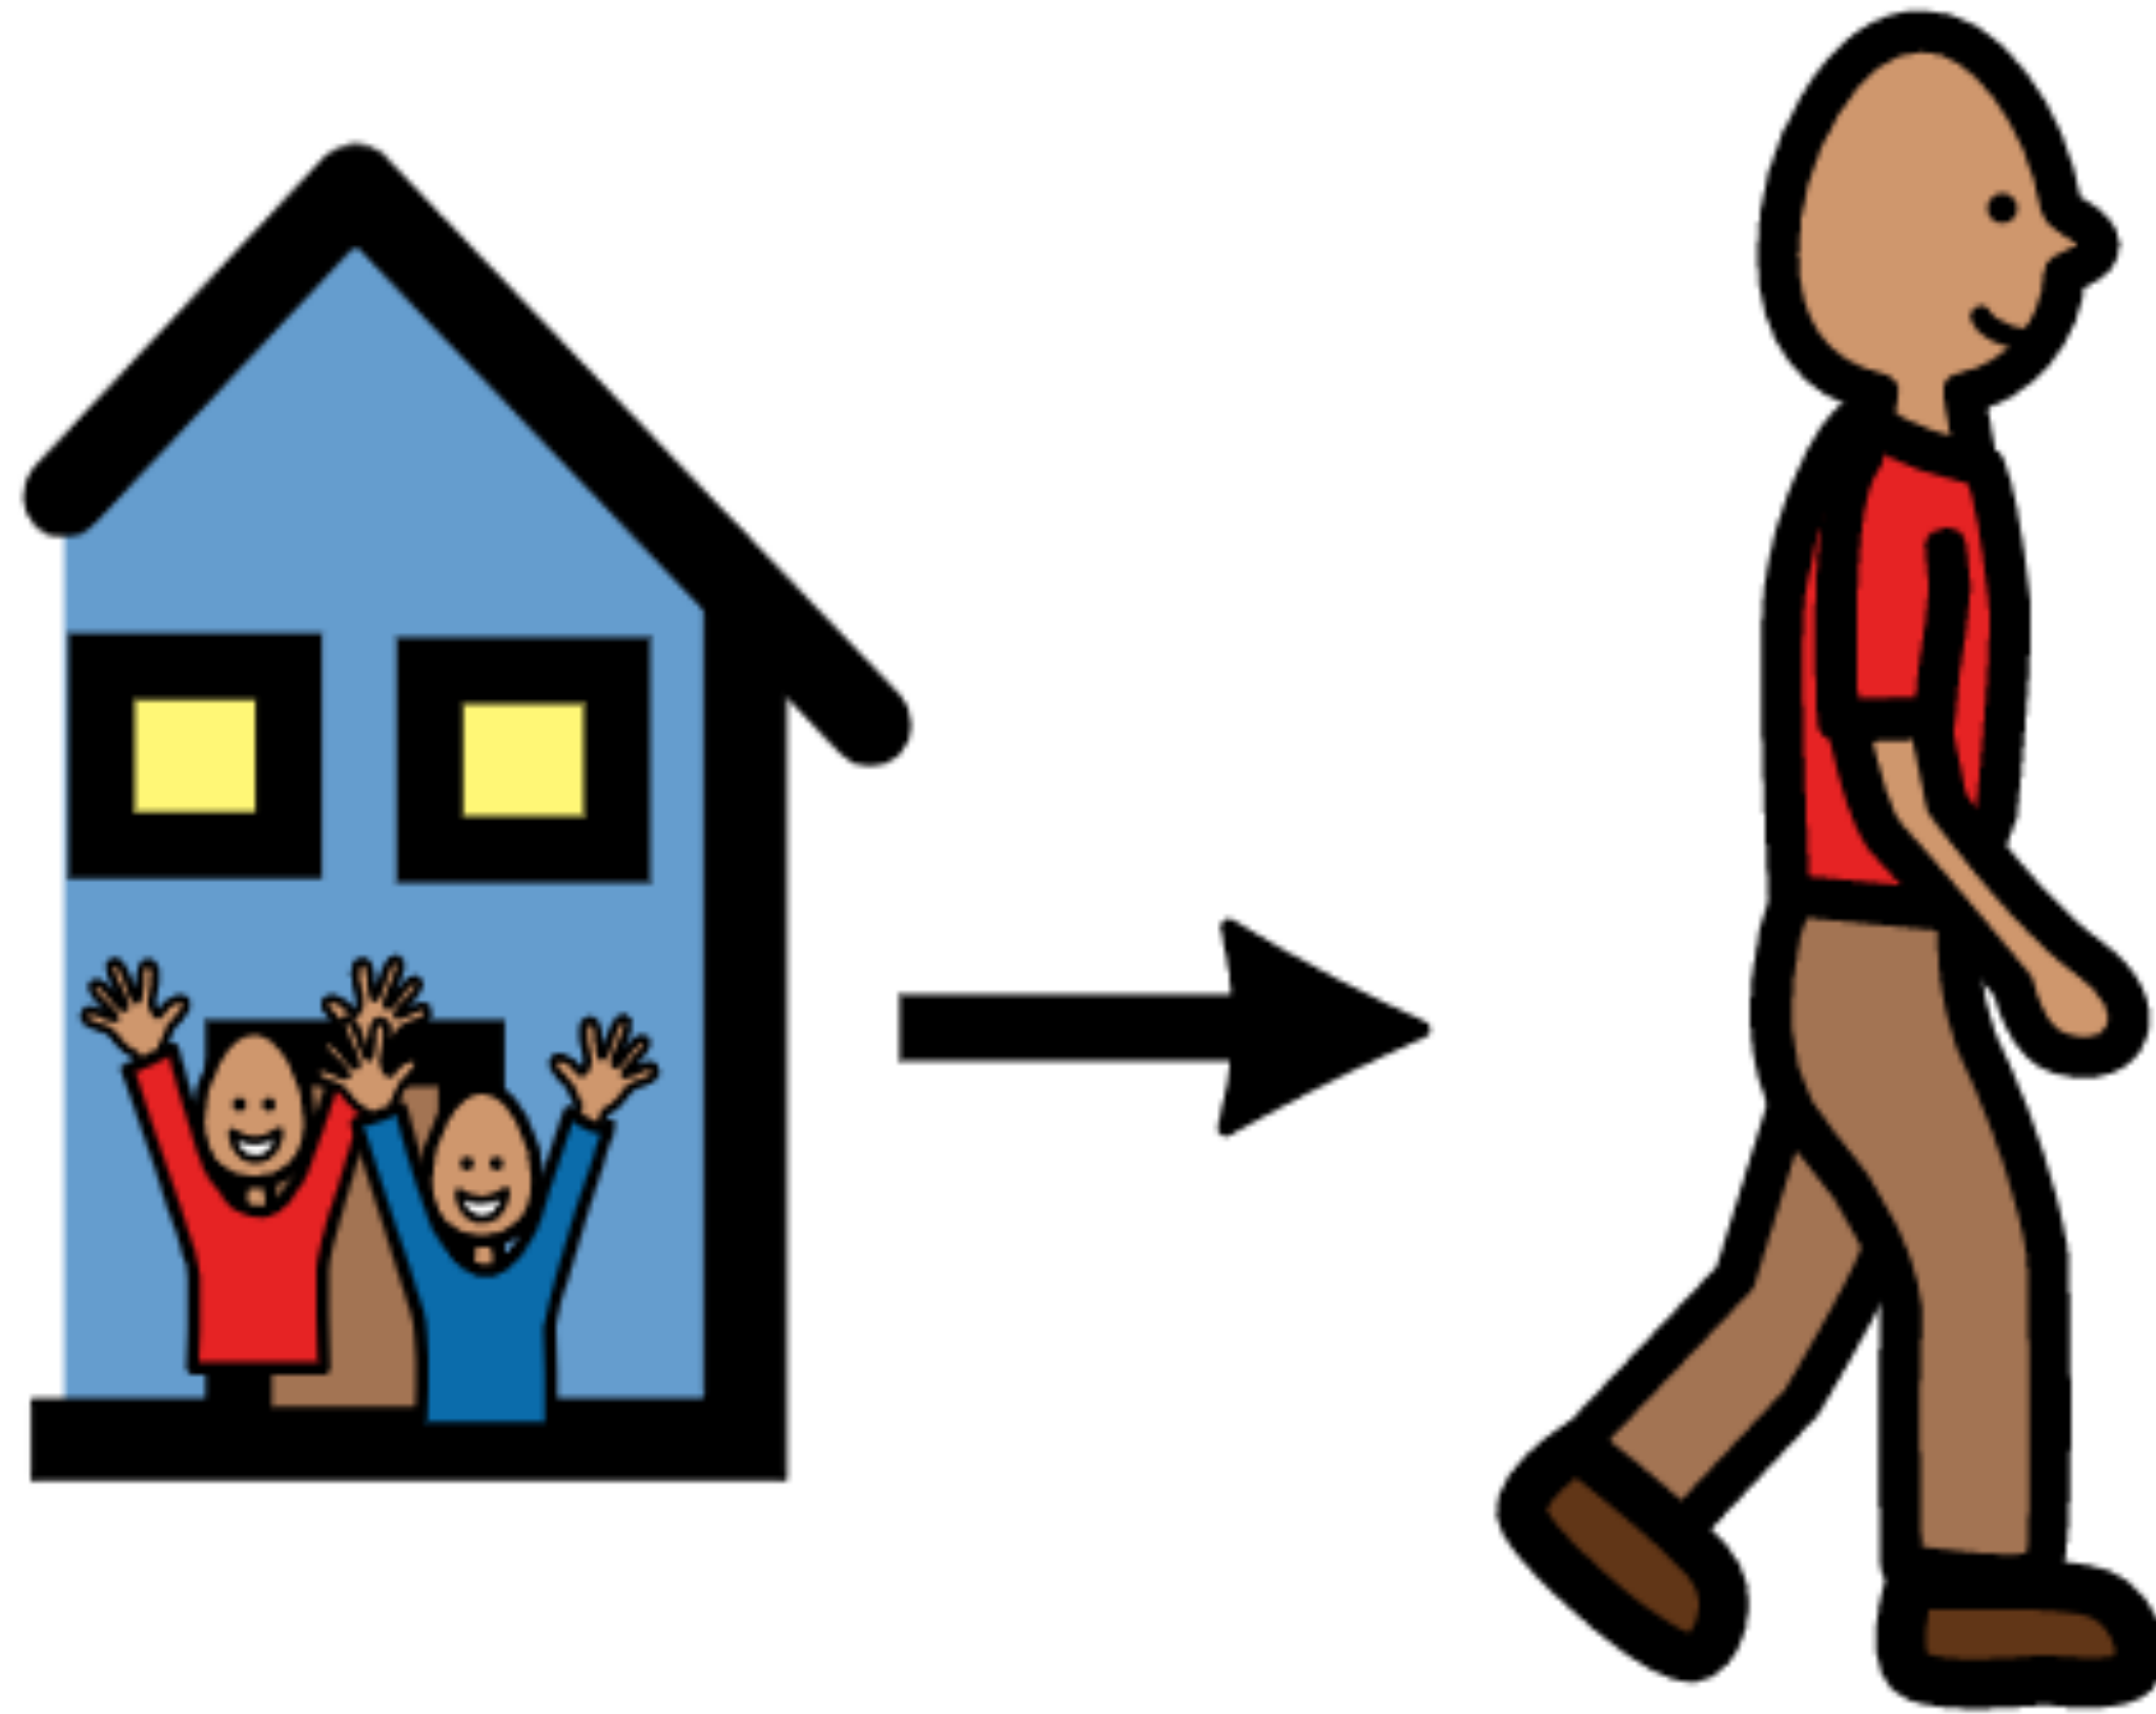

You are the leader of your microboard.

Being the leader means you can choose who you want to help you.

There might be times you don't want to ask your parents for help.

Having a microboard means you can have other people to help you too.

Microboards Australia can help you to get a microboard.